What we do

How does FinWise Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

FinWise Bank's policy is such that access to confidential information is provided only to those employees who need to know such information to administer your account(s).

How does FinWise Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account, make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Apply for a loan or pay your bills
- Give us your contact information, employment history or income information
- Make a wire transfer or use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your credit worthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
